

Centro Kibrahacha was abuzz on Sunday!

The usually tranquil environs of the Centro Kibrahacha for the elderly was a beehive of activities for all ages during their annual fundraising fiesta on Sunday, November 5. This is an event the entire island anticipates; as it is fun for all ages with children's games, raffles, and surprises all day long. Families come to spend the entire day, enjoying entertainment and dancing with various musical groups, hosted by the always amusing Rolo Fingal.

While relaxing in the shade and enjoying some barbecue lunch with homemade treats for dessert, attendees could also peruse the bargains found in the flea market or mini market, and find some beautiful handicrafts from the center's "clients" to decorate their home with Christmas cheer. Rotary Club representative Wilfredo Croes, a member of the Kibrahacha board, was a plant salesman for the day, and Director Diane Uchtman and her team of volunteers saw to it that a steady stream of fun kept everyone happy. Judging from how far away one had to park from the center in Piedra Plat, it would be a reasonable assessment that the Fiesta Kibrahacha 2006 was a resounding success!
